

Lynn Donald-Carver works for Arkansas Support Network and is the Program Manager of the Family Support Program. She is a founding member of the organization and has worked as an employee for over seven years. She is also a parent trainer for the Arkansas Parent Training and Information Center. She has a degree in Political Science from the University of Arkansas and an Associate Degree of Nursing from Memphis State University. As the parent of a child with disabilities, Ms. Donald brings her personal experience to bear in her work with children with disabilities and their families. She has done presentations to a variety of groups at the state and national levels and is often requested to do training for local groups on disability and special education topics.
